

by this problem that may or may not be able to be worked out by the Suffrage and Elections Committee, I am wondering if it would not be best to also make section 3.06, assuming you do not have many other amendments to that section, a special order of business, too, rather than amend it now, until we see what Suffrage and Elections can do to resolve the problem.

I could state the problem briefly, I think.

THE PRESIDENT: Indicate briefly what it is, please.

DELEGATE JOHNSON: Well, it develops in Suffrage and Elections because the way it stands now, Mr. President. An individual could register in any house district of a county and move to some other house district in that county, but legally maintain his voting registration and his right to vote in the original county.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Johnson, if I may interrupt you, the Chair is familiar with that amendment. Delegate Koss has spoken to me about it, and I have suggested to her that she prepare the amendment by Tuesday. It can be moved for reconsideration of that article by the Committee on Style, and I think could be acted upon on Tuesday.

I think the same thing could be done if an amendment becomes necessary in connection with it to 3.06 without postponing consideration of 3.06.

Delegate Kosakowski.

DELEGATE KOSAKOWSKI: I rise on a point of personal privilege.

THE PRESIDENT: State the privilege.

DELEGATE KOSAKOWSKI: Mr. President, as announced by you, apparently Tuesday is going to be a very important day. I am wondering whether you are going to issue any boxing gloves to the members and whether Tuesday, January 2, could be designated as pugilistic day.

THE PRESIDENT: Well, I have assumed, Delegate Kosakowski, that all delegates who have not already done so will have made their New Year's resolutions before next Tuesday and they will include a resolution for love and sweetness for all.

Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: In the same context, we might as well dispose of the remaining matter that was mentioned, and that is GP-6 on education. I therefore move—

THE PRESIDENT: Just a second. I think I have taken a vote on the other question yet.

The question arises on the motion to make sections 3.03, 3.04 and 3.23 special order for the session on Tuesday immediately following consideration of the other special order.

Is there any further discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

All those in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

Delegate Powers.

DELEGATE POWERS: I move that Committee Report S&D-12 dealing with Committee Recommendation GP-6 on education be made a special order for Tuesday, January 2, immediately following the other matters which have previously been made a special order for that day.

THE PRESIDENT: Second?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The question arises on the motion to make Committee Recommendation S&D-12, covering Committee Recommendation GP-6, a special order for Tuesday, January 2, 1968, immediately following the previous special order.

All in favor signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

Now, are there any other style amendments with respect to any sections of the Committee Recommendation LB-1, LB-2 and LB-3 other than sections 3.03, 3.04, and 3.23?

The Chair hears none.

The question arises on the adoption on second reading of Committee Recommendation LB-1, LB-2 and LB-3, as amended, with the exception of sections 3.03, 3.04 and 3.23.
